To whom it may concern,

I am writing to recommend myself, Yeray Rincón Cardoso, as a candidate for the role at Bending Spoons. Throughout my academic and professional journey, I have consistently demonstrated adaptability, quick learning, and strong problem-solving skills, even in high-pressure environments. My experience as a Backend Developer at NTT DATA has allowed me to design and maintain financial reporting systems, implement automated data pipelines, and optimize backend-to-frontend integrations. These responsibilities required not only technical expertise but also the ability to adapt rapidly to evolving challenges and deliver results under tight deadlines. Beyond my professional experience, I have also led impactful projects that showcase both technical depth and innovative thinking, highlighting my drive, critical thinking, and ability to transform complexity into practical, scalable solutions.

I firmly believe that my strong technical foundation, combined with my soft skills in teamwork, communication, and decision-making under pressure, align closely with Bending Spoons' culture of excellence and innovation. I am eager to contribute my knowledge, determination, and collaborative spirit to your team while continuing to grow as a professional in such a dynamic and ambitious environment.

Sincerely,
Yeray Rincón Cardoso
